End of the Year Disbursement Report

Judge Gayle Williams-Byers serves as Administrative and Presiding Judge of the South Euclid Municipal Court in South Euclid, Ohio. At the start of her term on January 1, 2012, she became the first African American elected to this seat in the city's history. She currently serves as the Secretary for the American Judge's Association (AJA), one of the largest judges-only organization in North America which has a mission of providing quality education programs and high level publications to its members. As a member of the organization, Judge Williams-Byers serves as co-chair of the Education, Domestic Violence, Access to Justice and Social Media and Technology Committees. Additionally, she serves as a member of the AJA Diversity and Education committees. Prior to joining the bench, Judge Byers has served as an Assistant Cuyahoga County Prosecutor, ending her career as Supervisor of the Cuyahoga County Grand Jury. Additionally, Judge Byers served as Adjunct Faculty at the Cuyahoga Community College in the Department of Law Enforcement, teaching courses in the areas of Juvenile, Constitutional and Criminal Law. As Municipal Judge in the City of South Euclid, Judge Byers has spearheaded several innovative advancements, including livestreaming court proceedings, creation of an IOS App to provide instant docket access, implementing a monthly Night Court docket to provide parties additional access to justice, and creation of the only suburban Specialized Mental Health Docket in Cuyahoga County. This docket is designed to address the needs of defendants with severe and persistent mental illnesses. Judge Byers was also the catalyst in forming the first suburban Drug Court initiative in partnership with Cleveland Municipal Court, where inaugural funding in the amount of nearly $2 million has helped to serve suburban communities in northeast Ohio. Judge Byers received her B.A., M.N.O., and J.D. degrees from Case Western Reserve University. She currently serves on the Board of New Directions, an organization that provides life changing treatment to chemically dependent adolescents and their families. She is also a member of Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Inc., Alpha Lambda Sigma Chapter. Judge Gayle Williams-Byers is a member of Beulah Baptist Church, where her father, Dr. A.E. Williams is Pastor. As an active member, Judge Byers is involved in the music, youth and announcement ministries. Judge Byers is married to Gregory D. Byers, Jr. They have one son, Gregory and a rescue puggle, Gator.
